Fools' Project Runway: Review by Roving Reporter Rover

Friday nights at the Moose Lodge Social Quarters have been spiced up over the past year with Ukelele Lessons, Film Showings, Game Nights, etc., but you gotta applaud the trend of fools providing fun & easy entertainment to make Foolish Fridays more frolicksome. Kudos to Mama Mia (our current Mother Folly Dame Judy Kory) for her delightful Fashion Show on the palindromic date of 11/11/11. A parade of handsome models took to the Social Quarters runway in a marvelous gallimaufry of vintage, modern and otherwise eccentric and impressive fashions, replete with witty commentary. The audience was also decked out in foolish finery, making for a splendid evening of snappy attire. I'd love to see this return as an annual event! -Rover

We're grateful for the wherewithal

The festoons for our festivals, for this we thank you very much.
We couldn't get along, you know,
without the kindness that you show
So as our ship bids bon voyage,

And Hotchkis we blow thee a kiss

LET THE WILD RUMPUS START! Halloween Party Review by Rover 10.29.11

That night at Glendale Moose Lodge a forest grew, and grew, until the ceiling hung with vines, and the vast white moon shone down, and monsters great and small, scary and precious, roared their terrible roars and gnashed their terrible teeth and rolled their terrible eyes and showed their terrible claws, and drank gin-&-tonics that glowed in the black lights, and feasted on tuna salad sandwiches and PB&Js, and danced in fearsome Haka dances and shook their terrible behinds to the bouncy dance beats of DJ Delecta, under the mesmerizing lights of TerryN, and twirled and howled and made mischief of one kind or another and hugged each other in the delightful jungle of art director Michael Hruska. Excellent job, o sober Waha!!

The work of many hands, as usual: thanks to the hard-core deco crew and to our brave and foolish officers of the Moose Lodge and to everyone else that lent a hand. Many of our favorite monsters were away at other parties that night, and they were missed.

Despite cries of "Please don't go. We'll eat you up. We love you so!" we made our way to our own homes and our snug beds, and found supper waiting for us, and it was still hot...

... Because we stopped at the drive-thru on the way!

On waves of love my heart is breaking
And stranger still my self control
I can't rely on anymore

New tides surprise my world it's changing
Within this frame an ocean swells
Behind this smile I know it well

Beneath a lover's moon I'm waiting
I am the pilot of the storm Adrift in pleasure I may drown
I built this ship it is my making
And furthermore my self control I can't rely on anymore

I know why I know why

Crazy on a ship of fools Crazy on a ship of fools

Turn this boat around back to my loving ground Oh no, oh no

Who claims that no man is an island

While I land up in jeopardy

More distant from you by degrees

I walk this shore in isolation

And at my feet eternity tries ever sweeter plans for me

I know why I know why

Crazy on a ship of fools

Oh, crazy on a ship of fools

Turn this boat around back to my loving ground

Oh no, oh no Ship of fools

Turn this boat around back to my loving ground Oh no,
