Bodacious Spoonfool

Every human shares aspects of the Fool (should we care to admit it) and today we celebrate that spirit in this exuberant parade culminating with the crowning of next year's King Of Fools. King Bo is the latest in a Faire tradition spanning decades, an unbroken line of frivolity and mirth and now you are a part of it.

Throughout the year The Fools Guild holds revels and hosts parties with themes that encourage costume and inspire creativity. All are welcome to bring their talents to help plan and mount parties, so check us out online and send email to: bodaciousspoonfool@gmail.com Bookmark the website: www.foolsguild.org Join the Facebook pages look for Fools Guild We'll keep you posted and invite you to join in.
