

King Neezaparte

Volume XXXII

Two Neezaparte Joker

Kuween Elbozen

These pictures come off with Silly Putty.

They are even making electric typewriters now, who would need one?

Who would ever buy a car marked "Made In Japan"?

Hello Fool!

If you're reading this, then you're a Fool. Quod erat demonstratum. You could look it up, you're online.

The Joker has made the leap-from analog to virtual, from printed to online, from paper to plastic, from sublime to ridiculous, and from soup to nuts-for numerous reasons, the most salient being money-moolah, cash, coin, cabbage, lucre, legal tender, scootie, simoleons, bread, bucks, dough, dinero-you know, the stuff from which, by tradition, we Fools are soon parted.

It costs an arm and a leg to deliver this precious pamphlet to profuse portals and even with Kneezaparte and Elbozen, we've finally run out of limbs. We also believe in embracing new technology by moving into the 21st Century, but for those Old Farts among us, you may also print this merry missive to pore over and peruse in solitary splendor while passing stools and emitting gas perched upon your personal porcelain pondering pedestal.

We'd also mail it to you if you so command, but you must contact us to let us know that is your wish, and it wouldn't hurt to cross our palm with silver. $19 per year will do nicely. PayPal: <http://www.foolsguild.org/Donate.htm>

Of course, you'd have to be a Fool to pay for what you can get for free, but we proved that in the first paragraph.

THE KING OF FOOLS
 had a chuckle stuffed up his boot and a runny nose

 when he went to court
 he dribbled
 ot plastic dog poop all over the carpet

 His queen loved him

 she often said,

 When the jokes grew tired
 they put them to bed
 with satin sheets

WRITTEN REQUEST FROM NEEZAPARTE

Write your life story in six words.
 We will publish it in the next Joker.

I'm not risking my neck to fly. I'm taking the train, they go everywhere.

We're members of the Catholic Church and the Boy Scouts,

I want my kids to be safe.

ey Daddy-O,

Look'n for a large charge man? Well, let me tell you what's buzzin cousin. It's time to crank it up for the craziest party around. All the coolest hipsters and little chickies are going to rock around the clock at the coolest bash ever so put on some threads and dress to impress.

We've got the slickest vinyl in the juke and the sounds will be wailing. We need you there to kick this party it into orbit. Only the most radioactive are going to be there and that means you. Believe me this party is going to be real gone.

Let me clue you in. We've planned entertainment that is going to be a panic and a half. This Hop is going to be a total blast. Keep it under your lid kid, I've recently pinned that special someone and I'm on cloud 9. I want to share this special night with all the Hoppers and Boppers that I'm tight with.

So hop in your chariot, burn some rubber and beat a path to the hottest dance in town. Get with it man, this dance is going to be the bomb. Only the hippest hipsters are going to be there. So get on the horn and tell your friends.

No fooling man! I'm not lighting up the "Tilt" sign here. This is going to be the god's honest bitchinest night ever. Staying home is nowheresville. Don't be pale, it's time to rattle your cage. Jump in your rod, pop the clutch, and punch it over to the lodge and we'll have it made in the shade.

If you want to refuel come early for some grub. You don't need a lot of bread but you have to make a res. There is a free lot across the street where you can stable the horsepower. No excuses man.

If you're not there you're going to be a real zero.

And you've heard it from the baddest King in town,

Kneezaparte

Can you believe it? Elizabeth Taylor is getting married for the THIRD time!

Put on your poodle skirt
and your leather jacket.

OUR Lady of Perpetual Storage

Joan Hotchkis

*She's vintage, she's classy,
She has a nice chassis,
And she looks pretty good from the rear;
A luxury model if ever there was one,
She was the classic that year.*

*Original paint job, original color,
Never left parked in the rain,
Just look at that tuck and rolled
Leather interior!
Nary a spot or a stain.*

*Her lines and her chrome
Make her look right at home
With the radio turned way up loud.
When Hotchkis goes tooling
I tell you, no fooling,
You've every right to be proud.*

Greetings from a Fool-Adjacent Moose

by Caitlin Mercer, Lodge Sweetheart

To promote foolery, mirth and events which more closely match the spirit of Fools and friends we have created a club within The Moose Lodge called The Glendale Moose Variety Arts Guild Activity Group, which many of us have taken to calling VAG for short. Meetings are first Fridays at 7 followed by regular activities in the bar. The goal is to actively plan use of the remodeled theater space and other areas in the lodge which will attract more folks like US to join and support the lodge. More people equals more fun. Show-up to a meeting or just drop by and one of us Fool-affiliated people can give you details.

We have a metric buttload of activities planned for the next few months. I won't recap them all here, but I will direct you to the lodge website where you can find a link to the calendar. Meetings, Dancing, Ukulele lessons, Moose Jam, Dinner Dances, Ultra Lodge, Breakfasts, Tea Dances, English Country Dancing, Movie Nights, Open Gate Theater and more! ALL events are open to Moose members and their qualified guests, so if you haven't joined yet, sign in as a guest of one of the Fool-members you know. (Then join, hint, hint.)

During the week there is wine, women and song, ie: inexpensive meals, iTunes and our charming bartenders.

-- Ukulele Night every First and Third Fridays! 8PM lesson, Jam about 9PM

Are you a Moose member but NOT getting the semi-monthly Glendale Lodge Call Of The Moose newsletter?

Contact me and I will get you added: caitcakes@gmail.com www.theglendalemoose.com

Did you hear the post office is going to charge a dime just to mail a letter, might as well phone.

A quarter a pack for cigarettes is ridiculous,

if my doctor didn't recommend them, I'd quit!

Being a Fool keeps you young.

Science has shown that eating more fruits, vegetables, and nuts along with exercise can increase your health and longevity. It has been recently discovered that bees have the same brain cells as humans (only really tiny...duh!) and when bees leave the hive and become lonely foragers they lose brain cells like humans with Alzheimer's. But when they are brought back to the hive and become social again their brains improve. So being part of our foolish family you can help your brain to stay active and young. How cool is that?

They say they're going to put a man on the moon,

<http://Foolsguild.org>

they'll never put a woman in space.

The drive-in restaurant will never catch on.

I'm not having kids. It cost 50 cents an hour for a baby sitter.
